STATE SENATOR JOHN A. SWANSON LOOKS MIGHTY GOOD AS THE REPUBLICAN WINNER FOR THE NOMINATION FOR JUDGE OF THE MUNICIPAL COURT.

The first of this week the local, state and national political pot began to boil in real earnest but nothing of any importance will be doing along the line of state and national politics until after the aldermanic primaries, Tuesday, February 29 and the election Tuesday, April 4th. Monday morning more than two hundred candidates filed their petitions for the nomination for aldermen in the various wards and for the first few days after that date others followed suit and many more will still do so from now until the last day of filing which is February 11.

Many Republican and Democratic candidates have also filed their petitions for the nomination for Judge of the Municipal Court as one Judge of that court is to be elected at the aldermanic election to succeed the late Judge Joseph E. Ryan.

The following candidates and then some are in the running for the nomination for aldermen in their respective wards throughout this city.

Democrats.

Many redhot fights are billed to come to a heading between the contending candidates and factions backing them in some of the wards the fight will become so bitter that it will be very hard to tell just which way the old political cat will jump until after the polls close on primary day and in some instances aldermen with good records behind them in the city council will be flattened out and others will be rewarded with the aldermanic crown who in the long run will prove themselves unworthy to wear it.

Alderman Joseph Higgins Smith, will be forced to run up against a pretty stiff opponent in the person of J. Edward Clancy, in Fourteenth Ward but as Alderman Smith has made good in the past and is O. K. at every stage of the game he will be returned to the city council from that ward.

The first of this coming week a real live White Republican candidate will be rushed into the field in the Second Ward and a desperate effort will be made to unhorse Alderman Hugh Norris, but in the final round up the indications are that Alderman Norris will win out with both hands down—that he will come in under the wire the victor on primary day.

Alderman Nathaniel A. Stern and Frederick W. Patterson will hit the trail real hard and engage in a hand to hand fight in the Third Ward and for some time to come it will be mighty hard to tell just how the scrape will come to a heading between them as Mr. Patterson will be strongly backed by Mayor William H. Thompson and his city hall crowd of shouters and retainers.

Alderman Willis O. Nance, will be forced to fight much harder than a first class tin soldier in order to continue to hold on to his present seat in the city council and he and Aaron J. Jones will clutch each other right square around the neck in their hand to hand struggle in the Sixth Ward and they will cause the fur to fly in every direction between now and primary day.

Alderman John N. Kimball and Frederick W. Krengel will engage in an old time knocking down and dragging out (Continued on page 5.)
